VOLUME CIX.--NO. 10. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, JANUARY 11, 1908. PRICE 2 CENTS.

What Ails You?

Do you feel weak, tired, despondent, have frequent headaches, coated tongue, bitter or bad taste in morning, "heartburn," belching of gas, acid risings in throat after eating, stomach gnaw or burn, foul breath, dizzy spells, poor or variable appetite, nausea at times and kindred symptoms?

If you have any considerable number of the above symptoms you are suffering from biliousness, torpid liver with indigestion, or dyspepsia. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is made up of the most valuable medicinal principles known to medical science for the permanent cure of such abnormal conditions. It is a most efficient liver invigorator, stomach tonic, bowel regulator and nerve strengthener.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is not a patent medicine or secret nostrum, a full list of its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper and attested under oath. A glance at its formula will show that it contains no alcohol, or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is a fluid extract made with pure, triple-refined glycerine, of proper strength, from the roots of the following native American forest plants, viz., Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherry bark, Queen's root, Bloodroot, and Mandrake root.

The following leading medical authorities, among a host of others, extol the foregoing roots for the cure of just such ailments as the above symptoms indicate: Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Med. College, Phila.; Prof. H. C. Wood, M. D., of Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., Author of American Dispensatory; Prof. Jno. M. Scudder, M. D., Author of Specific Medicines; Prof. Laurence Johnson, M. D., Med. Dept. Univ. of N. Y.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., Author of Materia Medica and Prof. in Bennett Medical College, Chicago. Send name and address on Postal Card to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and receive free booklet giving extracts from writings of all the above medical authors and many others endorsing, in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient of which "Golden Medical Discovery" is composed.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. They may be used in conjunction with "Golden Medical Discovery" if bowels are much constipated. They're tiny and sugar-coated.

JAPAN AND THE UNITED STATES

Lucien Millevoye, a member of the French Chamber of Deputies, who first achieved notoriety by his connection with the Boulanger movement, is the author of a sensational article published yesterday in which he calls upon Great Britain and France to intervene in the "American-Japanese crisis," before it is too late. He declares that Great Britain, supported by France, holds the key to the situation, but says the difficulty is that no one is able to fathom the secret hopes of the British government.

M. Millevoye lays the responsibility for the Russo-Japanese war at the door of Great Britain. This war, he says, made a "cemetery of Manchuria," and he asks if Great Britain now desires "another orgie of blood which will make the world shudder." Continuing, M. Millevoye argues that Great Britain may believe she can rule the far East upon the ruins of Japan and America, but he contends that if she does hold this conviction she is playing with fire, as a war might arouse the Asiatics from the Indus to the Amur.

M. Millevoye insists that the interests of Europe, both economic and political, lie with the United States.

"The time for arbitration has arrived," he says; "tomorrow may be too late. If the governments at London and Paris postpone conciliatory propositions it may cost both of them dear."

Considering the smoothness with which exchanges are progressing between America and Japan relative to the adjustment of questions growing out of the immigration of Japanese laborers into the United States, the officials of the State Department are puzzled to account for the publication in various foreign capitals, as well as in this country, of reports calculated to convey the impression that there is a serious friction between the two countries over this subject.

Cured of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone and I was restored my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

INJUNCTION PERPETUATED.

Justice Gould in Washington yesterday overruled a motion by the American Federation of Labor to amend the court's order, issued by him in Equity Court about four weeks ago, in the case of the Buck Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, in which the court temporarily enjoined the federation from placing the firm's name on a boycott and unfair list in its official publications.

The motion contended that the order abridges freedom of speech of all the defendants, and freedom of the press, "which is protected by the first amendment to the constitution of the United States." The case has attracted widespread attention, because it involves the right of labor organizations to use the boycott.

Justice Gould yesterday granted a perpetual injunction against John H. Brinkman, chairman of the strike committee of local union No. 72, Carriage and Wagon Workers' International Union; Henry C. Stein, secretary; Robert F. Jonscher, treasurer, and other members of the strike committee. The injunction was granted on the petition of William H. Lawton, a Washington carriage manufacturer, who complained that the strike committee interferred with his workmen and his business. No appeal was noted by the union's attorneys.

Another labor organization enjoined yesterday by Justice Gould is local No. 118, Bakers and Confectionary Workers' Union. The rule prevents the union from boycotting or interfering with the business of John Bender, a Washington baker. An appeal was noted.

Do the right thing if you have Nasal Catarrh. Get Ely's Cream Balm at once. Don't touch the catarrh powders and snuffs, for they contain cocaine. Ely's Cream Balm relieves the secretions that inflame the nasal passages and the throat, whereas medicines made with mercury merely dry up the secretions and leave you no better than you were. In a word, Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy, not a delusion. All druggists, 50 cents, or mailed by Ely's Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

NAME FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

To the Editor of The Republic, St. Louis

I would suggest that the new high school on Union boulevard be named the "Robert E. Lee Memorial School," for three reasons:

First—Because General Lee was the finest flower on the topmost bough of the tree of Christian civilization.

Second—Because, when he was an engineer officer of the United States army, stationed here sixty years ago and in charge of the improvements of the Mississippi river, he devised and carried through a plan to prevent the river from leaving its natural and usual channel some miles above St. Louis, and cutting close to the bluffs in Illinois east of the present site of East St. Louis, the result of which, unless it had been stopped by General Lee, would have been to leave St. Louis on a swamp or slough instead of a navigable river, and instead of the splendid city it is today, St. Louis would be a straggling village.

Third—Because, as the infallible Roosevelt said, General Lee was the greatest soldier of the English-speaking races, Marlborough, Wellington and Grant not excepted.

SATURDAY EVENING, JAN. 11, 1908.

ACCORDING to a dispatch from Constantinople, the Sultan of Turkey is about to play a part similar to that of Cyrus several centuries before the Christian era. He is to aid the Zionists in recovering Palestine and in reconstructing the Jewish commonwealth in the land of promise into which Moses led the favored people nearly thirty-five hundred years ago. It has been nearly nineteen hundred years since Titus captured Jerusalem, since which time the Hebrews have been a people without a country, king or high priest; yet during all these years they have hung tenaciously to the faith of their fathers and have literally remained separate from other nations. Their prophets, who foretold their dispersion, also presaged their restoration, and while the bulk of the people have long since lost interest in the forcasts of their seers, there has always been a certain percentage who read their Bible literally and believe in the restoration of the kingdom of Israel. The Zionists of this day are representatives of this element, and their views are held by many not Jews, but readers of and believers in the sacred writings. What has been done before is likely to be done again. The Babylonians, centuries before the dawn of the Christain era, sacked Jerusalem, destroyed Solomon's temple and carried the inhabitants away captives. During the seventy years that elapsed there was every reason to believe that the capital of the Jewish nation would remain as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers. But it did not. It is said that one of the captives went to King Cyrus and showed him the writings of the prophet Isaiah, who had phophesied centuries before Cyrus was born that he was to be raised up for the purpose of aiding the Jewish race in returning to Palestine. Cyrus was so enthused by the fact that the Jehovah of the Hebrews had honored him to such an extent as to place his name in the sacred writings, (Isaiah XLV.) that he used all his immense power toward carrying out the words of the prophet. We have no recollection of seeing Abdul Hamid's name in the Bible, nor any forecast concerning the part he is to play, in the latter days, but he may be used as an instrument in the fruition of the hopes of the Zionists.

As heretofore stated a bill has been introduced in the legislature to repeal section 12 of chapter 2, of an act which became a law without the signature of the Governor on the 21st of May, 1903, and which said section reads as follows:

No railroad company chartered under this act, or whose charter may be amended under this act, shall have power to build any railroad parallel to the line of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad.

The bill should be passed and the indications are that it will be. In the Senate on Thursday Mr. Folkes made inquiry concerning this railway by asking that the Attorney General be directed to furnish the Senate with information as to the status of the suits appealed by that road from the franchise tax assessments made by the State Corporation Commission. These suits are now pending in the Circuit Court of Richmond and aggregate more than $81,000, the company declining to pay the franchise tax, holding that it is not liable for such tax. The Corporation Commission and the Attorney General think otherwise, and the case is now before court for adjudication. This resolution was soon agreed to, and the information is expected to be forthcoming at once. Coming right on the heels of the proposition to repeal the law which prohibits the paralleling of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac, it is believed to indicate that the members of the General Assembly are getting ready to retire the State from the railroad business and to allow the other companies to enter into competition with the company which now enjoys a monopoly between Richmond and the North. Railroads should be treated fairly and justly by national, State, city and county governments, but they should not be permitted to monopolize any section of the country.

SENATOR LAFOLLETTE, of Wisconsin, took precautions Thursday to prevent his presidential boom from being frostbitten by begging to be excused from further service on the military affairs committee, giving no reason. As no objection was raised, his withdrawal was approved. With the readjustment of committee places at the beginning of this session Mr. La Follette was assigned on military affairs. Subsequently he realized he was probably expected to vote with the administration on the Brownsville affair. It was self-evident that if he supported the administration he would throw away all chances of picking up any delegates in the southern States, and jumped "AND SO the storm of centralization has continued. We have today presidential messages containing more words than the Saviour of mankind used in all his years of labor promulgating the doctrines of life, and death for the guidance of all the peoples of all the races of all the nations that were to be." In these scathing words, Representative Finis J. Garrett, of Tennessee, reached the climax Wednesday night in his speech before the Tennessee Society of St. Louis, Mo., in which he criticised the centralization of power in the federal government. These words were the prelude to his speech, and they need no comment.

A DEMAND for $11,582,931 more than last year is made in the estimates for the support of the military establishment which accompanies Secretary Taft's annual report. No wonder Mr. John Sharp Williams wants the army reduced.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., January 11.

Secretary Taft last night faced a New York audience, set forth in detail his stand on the pertinent question of the relative interests and rights of labor and capital and in turn submitted to a rapid-fire attack from the audience, which quizzed him keenly and in a somewhat controversial spirit, according to the practice of the People's Institute, whose guest he was. He gave warning that any injustice done to corporate capital, particularly drastic legislation against railroads, reacts directly upon the wage-earners. Workingmen, he said, should carefully discriminate in approving or disapproving legislation of this kind. Capitalists must also recognize the labor organizations, he said.

In anticipation of the arrival of Admiral Evans' fleet at San Francisco, the Navy Department has authorized the purchase of 1,500 tons of provisions to be delivered at Mare Island, including 700,000 pounds of sugar.

As a result of mileage expenses contingent upon the horsemanship tests for many officers, ordered by the President, the War Department has decided to ask for an additional appropriation of $50,000 for the remainder of the present fiscal year.

The mints are doing a profitable as well as necessary business in meeting the pressing demands for subsidiary coins. The profit on coinage, officially known as the seignorage, for the month of December was more than $900,000. This is an exceptional record.

A "prohibition lobby" is the latest reform organization to be established in the national capital. It will be operated under the auspices of the national committee of the prohibition party and its specific purpose will be to urge Congress to protect "dry" States from federal pro-liquor interference. Its operations will be particularly interesting to the south where the State prohibition movement has met with such success lately. The bureau will be in immediate charge of Matthew E. O'Brien, of Bridgeport, Conn., who was the prohibition party's candidate for governor of that State in the last election, and Finley C. Hendrickson, of Cumberland, Md.

Hon. John Goode, of Virginia, is ill at Providence Hospital in this city. It is not believed, however, that the rheumatic attack from which Mr. Goode is suffering is serious.

CONGRESSIONAL.

In the House yesterday five hours were given to debate on the bill revising the criminal code of the United States.

There was an interesting debate between Representatives Burlison and Payne over the part leading newspapers are taking in the financial and political questions of the day.

The Dick-Ames bill to amend the act requiring the militia to conform to the regular army in order to benefit by the general militia reorganization law was passed.

The resolution of Representative Gill for an investigation of the Brownson-Rixey dispute was reported to the House by the naval affairs committee.

Mr. Shackleford introduced a bill which provides for a three-cent street car fare and a universal transfer on all lines in the District of Columbia.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Thomas, of Georgia, to refund to the southern states the cotton tax realized by the government under the cotton tax laws of 1862 and 1864.

"SEAGOING RAILROAD" FINISHED.

The Florida East Coast Railway will open the new road from Miami to Knights Key on January 16, the last arch having been completed a few days ago. Already steamers are plying between Knights Key and Key West and Havana, making the trip in six hours, and on and after January 16 tourist trains will run through to Knights Key. It is expected that the traveling time between New York and Havana will be shortened one day by the new route, known as the "Seagoing Railroad."

REDUCTION IN OCEAN RATES.

Another reduction in steerage rates to England, Ireland and Scandinavian points, bringing the fare down to $20, the lowest it has been in years, was announced in Boston Thursday by the White Star line. It is expected the rate war between the White Star and the Cunard will soon affect other rates and may bring trans-Atlantic rates within the reach of everybody. A cut of $3.75 was made by the White Star Wednesday. Yesterday the Cunard met it only to have the White Star lop another $3.70 off.

COURT OF APPEALS.

The following is a summary of yesterday's proceedings in the Court of Appeals: Burton vs. Siefert Plastic Relief Company. Fully argued and submitted.

Next cases to be called:

Adams, trustee, vs. Tidewater Railway Company; Stimmel vs. Benthal; Jewett vs. Ware, and French vs. Logan and Crounse vs. Crounse, being Nos. 12, 13, 14, 16 and 17 on argument docket.

Mrs Basil Gordon, of Baltimore, and Lieutenant Colonel Barnett, United States Marine Corps, were married in Baltimore today.

News of the Day.

President Roosevelt is quoted as saying Taft will be nominated for the presidency on the first ballot.

Admiral Ito was dismissed from the Japanese navy yesterday because of a scandal with the wife of a workingman.

Rev. Edward S. Hume, former missionary of the American Board at Bombay, India, died in New York, yesterday.

Official announcement has been made in Tokio of the appointment of Ambassador Takahira, Japan's representative to Rome, to the Washington Embassy.

The second jury to try Harry K. Thaw for the killing of Stanford White was completed late yesterday and on Monday the prosecution will present its direct case against the defendant.

William J. Bryan, who spoke at Danville, Ill., Thursday night at a dinner, declared his belief that Joseph G. Cannon will be the republican candidate for President and that he will oppose Mr. Cannon.

The Transvaal yield of gold for the month of December makes a new record. The output was 583,526 ounces, which is 28,499 ounces over the previous highest yield for a month. The value of the December output is placed at £2,478,659.

Edwin Collier, sr., took his eight-year-old blind son, Edwin, to his wife's grave in a Ravenna, Ohio, cemetery some time Thursday night, shot him dead and then put a bullet through his own body. He died today. Williams killed his son because New York specialists said he would never recover his sight.

In New York today City Clerk Scully issued marriage license No. 1, 291, to the Count Laszlo Jeno Maria Henrik Szechenyi and Miss Gladys Moore Vanderbilt. The couple called at the City Hall and secured their license before their identity was known to any but the official issuing the document.

The Wireless Spark Telegraph Company made a record yesterday in transmitting messages for 2,290 miles, between Hauen, near Berlin, and the Hamburg-American line steamer Cape Blanco off Tenerriffe, Canary Islands. This is about 300 miles farther than the distance traversed by the Marconi record.

Judge Alton B. Parker gave President Roosevelt some hard knocks in a speech at Kingston, N. Y., yesterday. He spoke of the President as an "untutored idealist" and declared that he was dangerous. He referred to "callow youthfulness of intellectual development" and says property was attacked by the President.

The report of the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General for December, shows that there were 38,544 rural routes in operation, served by 38,388 carriers, and that 726 routes render service tri-weekly. The petitions for rural service handled to January 2, aggregated 55,727, upon which 15,448 adverse reports were made.

A motion for manhood suffrage was defeated in the Prussian Landtag yesterday and Chancellor Von Bulow made a statement that the government did not consider manhood suffrage would be good for the State. This announcement caused rioting in Berlin, 30,000 or more of the unemployed hungry people giving the police considerable trouble.

Five hundred people stood horrified on an overhead bridge at North Braddock, Pa., last night, and watched two young women fight a duel, almost to the death, over a twenty-two year lover. The young man appeared finally and himself stopped the bloody battle, though probably too late to save the life of either. One was shot and the other cut with a knife.

Four firemen went to their deaths last night when they responded, to a fire that ruined the Parker building a twelve-story business structure occupying the block between east Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets, in Fourth avenue, New York, and destroyed between $4,000,000 and $6,000,000 in property. Floor after floor gave way and dropped to the basement and beneath these and crumbling walls no less than thirty firemen were caught and either killed outright or serious injured.

Virginia News.

Lawrence Russell died at his home near Berryville yesterday.

Mrs. Maggie Shryock, wife of W. B. Shryock, of Berryville, died Thursday.

At the Norfolk navy yard yesterday 104 mechanics in the various departments were laid off. This makes over 200 discharges recorded during the week.

Mrs. Cora Brown Thompson, wife of C. E. Thompson, died suddenly at her home in Leesburg on Thursday. She was a daughter of Mrs. Irene Brown, of Washington.

Captain Robert Dew, paymaster in the employ of the Southern Railway at its Pinner's Point terminals, near Norfolk, was yesterday run over by a shifting engine and four cars and instantly killed.

Coton, near Leesburg, has been sold by Judge W. S Lewis, of Conway, S. C., Dr. H. B. Hutchinson, of Herndon, and William Creighton, of Ashburn, to John Guthrie Hopkins, of, New York. The estate, which contains about 1,850 acres, was the property of the late Judge Yeoman, of Washington, and was purchased by him from Senator Stewart, of Nevada. It was originally the old Lee estate The price paid by Mr. Hopkins was $42,000.

Floyd county men arrived at Roanoke yesterday after having been on the road since Tuesday morning, when they left the top of the mountain in Floyd. They report that the county has experienced the worst snow storm in 35 years. When they left the county the snow was 18 inches deep and was still falling. It had drifted in many places to a depth of 15 feet. It will be impossible for wagoners to get through to Roanoke under three or four weeks, and in the meantime Roanoke will necessarily suffer, as a very large proportion of country produce sold in that city comes from Floyd. The county is practically cut off from the outside world, and all telephone lines are down. The mails have been greatly delayed, and the only way of transporting is on horseback across fields and through woods, owing to the heavy drifts in the roads.

New York Stock Market.

New York, January 11.—There was a generally firmer tone to the market this morning. The denials of the receivership stories were reflected in a sharp advance in Southern Railway preferred which rose 2¼ points while the common moved up 1¼. At the end of the hour the tone was generally strong.

Legislature.

SENATE.

Senator Sale yesterday presented a bill creating the office of civil justice in cities of 30,000 population and over, and defining the duties of such magistrate.

Senator Parks presented a bill providing for the creation of a fund for the benefit of disabled firemen of the State.

Senator Parks also introduced a bill which provides for the election of commissioners of the revenue by the people.

Judge Sims moved the discharge of the committee on courts of justice from the consideration of his bill to repeal the statute prohibiting the paralleling of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, and requesting that the bill be referred to the committee on roads. A recorded vote of the Senate was taken on motion of Senator Echols, disclosing no opposition to the transfer of the bill, and it was so ordered.

Senator Sale, chairman of the steering committee, submitted the list of standing committees to the democratic caucus immediately following the session of the Senate.

The assignments are as follows:

HOUSE

Mr. Martin Williams, from Giles county, presented a bill asking that three persons be appointed by the General Assembly, who shall revise and digest the code of the commonwealth.

Mr. Pulliam, of Manchester, introduced companion bills. The first tends to make the laws governing the sale of adulterated, misbranded, poisonous or deleterious foods or liquors comply with laws existing in other southern States and with the U. S. statute, and the second appropriating $20,000 to be used in the enforcement of the pure food law.

A third bill would abolish the regular May registration of voters. He estimated that the abolition of said registration would mean the saving of $10,000 to the State, which might be used in the enforcement of the pure food law.

Captain Baker, of Chesterfield, introduced a bill to provide for the erection in Richmond of a building in which to display the mineral and timber exhibit donated to the State by the Virginia Mineral and Timber Exhibit Association and to appropriate money for that purpose. The sum of $250,000 is asked.

Dr. Snead, of Princess Anne, offered a bill which requires toilet rooms on all the electric lines of the State whose length is fifteen miles or more, and which have a terminal point at some town.

Col. Bowman, chairman of the House finance committee, is willing to see the State spend $250,000 on her public roads. He showed this yesterday when he offered a bill appropriating that amount for highway improvement.

Mr. Sutherland, a republican member from Dickenson and Wise, offered a sweeping compulsory education bill applicable to all children between the ages of seven and twelve, whether they be white or black. It provides that youngsters of the age specified shall attend school not less than 75 per cent. of each school term, subject to certain exceptions.

Mr. Curlett, of Lancaster, offered a bill to amend section 3819 of the Code so as to make the law read as follows: "If any person by playing or betting at any game or wager at cards or anything else at any place, lose or win any sum or anything of value, he shall be confined in jail not less than fifteen nor more than sixty days, and fined not less than $100 nor more than $500 for each offense."

Mr. Featherston introduced bills to regulate the sale and carrying of concealed weapons.

Mr. Jennings, of Lynchburg, offered a bill to increase the appropriation for the State militia from $15,000 to $60,000. He also offered a bill to continue the Department of the Secretary of Military Records and appropriating $5,000 therefor. He likewise introduced a traveling auditor's bill, which provides that the accounts shall be attached to the Second Auditor's office.

Mr. Bell, of Culpeper, offered a bill making it obligatory upon the educators of Virginia to teach the elements of agriculture in all of the public schools of the State, also to increase the pensions of all classes of war veterans.

Both houses of the general assembly, after half an hour's session, adjourned until Monday.

A bill is being prepared by N. E. Spessard, of Craig, providing for the rearrangement of counties in the Fifth, Sixth, Ninth and Tenth congressional districts. It is proposed to take Craig out of the Ninth district and put it in the Tenth; to take Halifax from the Sixth and give it to the Fifth, and to put Giles, Pulaski, Bland and Wythe counties, now in the Ninth, in the Sixth. The republicans will probably favor the change so far as it affects the Ninth district, but the putting of Halifax, now in the Sixth, into the Fifth, will make the latter district, which is looked upon as close, strongly democratic.

It is very important and in fact it is absolutely necessary to health that we give relief to the stomach promptly at the first signs of troubles. Take something once in a while; especially after meals; something like Kodol For Dyspepsia and Indigestion. It will enable your stomach to do its work properly. Sold by W. F. Creighton.

Today's Telegraphic News.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Jan. 11.—The jury in the Thaw case has been secured, and after a consultation with medical experts, counsel for Thaw announced today that the defense would be that he is suffering from the mental disease known to experts as "stuporousmelancholia." The symptoms of this disorder are declared by Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton to be the failure of the afflicted person to realize events transpiring in his or her life, or leading up to a tragedy, but upon the culmination of a tragedy the mind is reawakened and there is then a possibility of a cure.

This plea was urged in the case of Thomas Harrigan, a plumber, who slew the traducer of his sister some years ago and was promptly acquitted by a jury.

"Unless something unforseen develops, the State will complete its direct proof of the killing of Stanford White by Harry Kendall Thaw at the morning session on Monday," declared District Attorney Jerome today.

On Monday morning, just before Mr. Garvin makes his opening address, Attorney Littleton for the defense will make a motion for the appointment of a commission to visit Pittsburg and take the deposition of Mrs. William Thaw, Harry's mother. Her physician there has notified counsel for the defence that there is absolutely no chance of her health permitting the trip to New York to testify.

It is likely that the expert witnesses who testified for Mr. Jerome at the first trial, that Thaw was a paranoiac, will be called early in the trial. If they repeat their testimony it is possible Mr. Jerome will at once call for the appointment of a commission to pass upon Thaw's present mental condition and the trial will be halted until that matter can be gotten out of the way.

No Receivership.

Washington, Jan. 11.—In reply to inquiries regarding rumors of receivership proceedings against the Southern Railway, General Counsel Thom, of that road, denied in Washington yesterday any knowledge of any such proposed action. President Finley, of the road, is ill at his home, but it was stated at his office that nothing was known there regarding the matter. Mr. Thom said it could be stated on his authority that he knew nothing whatever of any such proceeding now or contemplated, and that it was the first he had heard of it. He said that he could not account for the report.

Eaten by Wolves.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 11.—Wolves have eaten at least 245 men, women and children throughout European Russia in the past few weeks, according to the official statistics here. The reports are undoubtedly incomplete, so that the number is probably considerably larger than given by the authorities. The severe winter has driven thousands of packs from the wilderness to the more populated sections of the country where they haunt the country roads and even venture into the outskirts of the smaller towns.

Collided with Freight Train.

Bristol, Va., Jan. 11.—While traveling fifty miles an hour the Chattanooga-Washington limited collided today headon with a freight near this city without serious injury to a soul. Engineers John Smith and John Milton and their firemen escaped by jumping. Postal Clerk C. W. Calliwell, brother-in-law of Congressman Glass, of Virginia, and Albert Rimringer, an express messenger, were slightly hurt. The passengers received a bad shaking up, but were not injured.

Searching for Body.

New York, Jan. 11.—Although the entire harbor and every tug boat captain plying the East river has searched carefully, they have not yet recovered the body of Policeman Robert J. Fitzgerald, who lost his own life last night preventing Edward H. Walker, of Chicago, committing suicide. Walker is almost a maniac in his cell and tells a graphic story of the tragic manner in which the policeman died.

Law Declared Constitutional.

Mobile, Ala., Jan. 11.—Another round in the long fight of the saloons in Alabama against stringent regulation or total exclusion has gone against the liquor interests. City Judge Semmes today held the law requiring saloons in cities of 1,500 population to close at 8 p. m. constitutional. An appeal will probably be taken so that the highest State courts can pass on the question.

Ruef Wants Absolute Immunity.

San Francisco, Jan. 11.—Unless Abe Ruef, convicted grafter and former political boss, is granted absolute immunity, he refuses positively to aid in the further prosecution of the grafting ring of this city. He delivered his ultimatum to District Attorney Langdon and Assistant Attorney Henri at a long conference that ended late last night.

Badly Mixed Up.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed for blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by all druggists, fifty cents.

Mrs. Bryan in Rome.

Rome, Jan. 11.—The visiting of Mrs. W. J. Bryan here is creating unusual interest. The Pope is making it a point to receive Mrs. Bryan with all the honors due to her position as he considers that her husband will some day be the President of the United States.

Bad Stomach Trouble Cured.

Having been sick for the past two years with a bad stomach trouble, a friend gave me a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They did me so much good that I bought a bottle of them and have used twelve bottles in all. Today I am well of a bad stomach trouble.—Mrs. John Lowe, Cooper, Maine. These tablets are for sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

Danger in Subway.

New York, Jan. 11.—The thousands of people who used the subway to get to their places of business today will probably never realize that but six inches of concrete stood between them and death by drowning. In the cellar of the Parker building, at Eighteenth street and Fourth avenue, are thousands of tons of water poured into it by twenty-five of the largest fire engines in the world pumping at their utmost capacity for more than five hours. This water remains today in the cellar and sub-cellar of the ruined sky scraper, whose foundations abut the big tube that is the main artery of the city's transportation facilities.

It was not until this morning that the police realized the danger that beset the subway travelers. Hurry orders were sent out to shut off all traffic in the tube south of Forty-second street. The cellars in that vicinity are solid rock, and if the concreate foundation of the Parker building gives way the outlet for the water is the subway.

So grave is the situation that the chief experts of the city's building department have been ordered to the scene to determine what is best to be done.

The loss by the fire is said to approximate $6,000,000.

The search for the bodies of the three firemen who undoubtedly lost their lives while fighting the flames in the 13-story Parker building is being pushed as rapidly as the red hot ruins of the sky scraper can be handled. Thus far not a sign of any of the men has been found.

Holy War Declared.

Paris, Jan. 11.—That Harfid has been proclaimed Sultan of Morocco at Fez is confirmed by government despatches received today. His priests accepted his assumption of royalty by declaring a holy war against the French. The development is a heavy blow to France. The declaration of the holy war is certain also to draw to his banner again all the desert tribes which it was hoped the recent campaign had completely scattered.

The most serious feature of the situation is that Germany is considered certain to interfere reopening all the troubles which preceded the Algeiras conference, unless the French restore order in Morocco.

Children Injured.

Barnsley, England, Jan. 11.—Sixty children were injured in a terrible panic this afternoon at a performance for little ones at Harvey Institute. Among the sufferers were several infants. A number of the victims will die. Just how the stampede started is uncertain. The auditorium was already packed and a still greater throng of children was seeking admittance and being turned away. In some way the little ones inside became alarmed and rushed in a body for the exists. The few adults in the house were unable to check the panic and the terrified children were knocked down and trampled upon.

Whitmore Held for Grand Jury.

Harrison, N. J., Jan. 11.—Theodore S. Whitmore was arraigned before Justice Branegan here today charged with the murder of his wife, Lena, the Lamp Black swamp victim. He was held without bail to await the action of the grand jury of Hudson county. It was testified by Thomas Bartlett that he had heard Whitmore threaten in Brroklyn that he would kill Mrs. Whitmore.

The Flurry Over.

New York, Jan. 11.—As indicated by that financial barometer the New York bank statement, the financial flurry which has caused so many failures and created such alarm in money circles is a thing of the past. Today's bank statement shows a surplus of $6,084,050 above the legal requirements. It is the first time since the panic of October that a surplus has been recorded.

TAX BILLS.

A bill introduced yesterday in the House of Delegates by Mr. Featherston, of Campbell county, requires all treasurers and other officers collecting taxes within this State in every case to deliver a dated tax ticket.

As the right of suffrage in Virginia now depends upon the date upon which the poll tax of the voter is paid, it will be seen that this measure is of the highest importance.

Under the present status of the law, the treasurer of a county or city may virtually disfranchise a citizen by not placing his name on the list of those who have paid their poll taxes within the prescribed time, and the taxpayer may have no way of proving the fraud.

Under the proposed measure of Mr. Featherston, the treasurer is required to deliver to the taxpayer full evidence of the time of payment, which may be used for the conviction of the treasurer in case he afterwards carelessly or fraudulently omit the voter's name from the list required by law.

SCAFFOLD ERECTED.

Mr. Julian D. Knight has constructed in the jail yard the scaffold on which George Midgets, colored, will be hanged next Friday. There is a decided sentiment in this city against the execution, not that the judgment of the jury is questioned in any manner, but from the fact that more than a third of a century has elapsed since a hanging took place in Alexandria and hopes had been indulged that the present generation would witness no more. In fact, members of the jury which convicted Midgets have substantially expressed the same opinion. In connection with the above, it may be stated that a majority of the members of the jury have already signed a petition to the Governor expressing a wish that Midgets' sentence be commuted. This petition will be presented to Governor Swanson by Messrs. R. D. Brumback and Howard W. Smith, Midgets' counsel, and if found necessary, another petition will be prepared for general signature praying that the condemned man's punishment be commuted to imprisonment in the penitentiary.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late John W. Savage took place this afternoon from the residence of his grandfather, Mr. Charles Glover, 420 south Washington street. The pallbearers were Messrs. Elton R. Shinn, Freeman H. Mansfield and John H. Knight, of the Columbia Fire Company, who were in uniform, and Messrs. David Hollet, E. W. Wheatly and E. B. O'Brien. The bells on the engine houses were tolled while the funeral was in progress. The services were conducted by Rev. C. D. Bulla.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.

The executive committee of the Washington Birthday Association will meet at the Chamber of Commerce tonight at 8 o'clock. The finance committee will report to this meeting subscriptions aggregatsng nearly one thousand dollars, and the general sentiment of former contributors. The secretary, Mr. H. B. Caton, will report that Congressman Carlin has been notified by the Secretary of War that the government troops at Fort Hunt, Fort Meyer and the Arsenal, at Washington, will parade in this city, on the twenty-second proximo. The chairmen of committees will at once perfect a complete organization for a proper observance of the day commemorating the hundred and seventy-sixth birthday anniversary of George Washington.

Revival services will commence in the M. P. Church tomorrow night.

NINE MONTHS IN JAIL.

Nine months in jail was the sentence imposed by Judge Kimball in Washington yesterday in the case of Sydney K. Freedman, an alleged deserter from the United States Marine Corps, who was arrested January 2, charged with carrying concealed weapons and of having stolen a watch from James Allen, an inmate of the Soldiers' Home. He was fined $80, but failed to pay it. In addition to the fine, the court instructed the prison authorities to turn the man over to the Washington Barracks after serving his term in jail. Freedman had not been married twenty-four hours before he was arrested. His courtship was of a few hours' duration, he having met his wife, who is an Alexandrian, on the ferryboat Lackawanna.

A Bark For Barker.

The editor sat in his easy chair. Editors always have easy chairs—in fiction. He thought he recognized the handwriting on one of the envelopes. He sighed.

"Another poem," said he, reaching for the waste paper basket. He opened the letter. He was agreeably disappointed. It was prose. It ran as follows:

"A man named Barker had a dog that barked, so he called it Barker because it barked and because his own name was Barker. So the man was Barker, and the dog that barked was Barker. The man didn't bark, although his name was Barker. Barker and Barker went for a walk, and Barker barked—that is, dog Barker, not man Barker. In fact, dog Barker barked so much that man Barker said: 'Barker, don't bark so often. You never hear me bark.' Just then man Barker barked his shin on the bark of a tree and barked like anything."

The editor paused. There was a note inclosed, which ran, "Please send check for inclosed to me at 1001 Barker avenaue, city." Then did the deus ex machina write, with a smile, "I have received your joke and will send check—when my bark comes in."—Judge.

The Glad Ring.

The ideal state of love will never come to pass until the wooer can use the glad ring in his voice and save the price of a diamond toward provisions for the first year in a flat.—Spokane (Wash.) Spokesman-Review.

He Didn't Like a Crowd.

Mrs. Gotrox—Mabel, dear, are you sure Mr. Woodby loves you for yourself alone? Mabel—Yes, I'm sure he does, mamma. He is always so restless when you are in the room.—Exchange.

In January, 1849, one year after the first discovery of gold in California, there were 10,000 men mining there.

Life of Leisure.

There are still a few who are leisurely in their hours of freedom, but what about the old life of leisure? It used to be thought that such a life was innocent and admirable and that good fruit might come of it. But nowadays the man who does nothing but meditate and observe and write a little is a man condemned by the ordinary opinion of society.—London Reader.

Rebuked.

Young College Woman (interested in politics)—The office should seek the man. Grandma (rather deaf)—I know that's what girls think nowadays, but in my time it was considered very unladylike.—Puck.

It is indeed a desirable thing to be well descended, but the glory belongs to our ancestors.—Plutarch.

The Persian Language.

Persian is said to be not a very difficult language. The modern Persian is very much like the English in its sensible rejection of the inflections that burden so many of the world's tongues. There is no difference of termination to mark the gender either in nouns or adjectives, and all inanimate things are neuter. In other ways the Persian language conforms to the English.

Illegal.

Ethel—That sixteen-year-old boy asked me to marry him. Edith—And you threw him over? Ethel—Yes; told him it was against the law to catch lobsters so young.—Judge's Library.

Not Depressed.

"He says his whole life is a fizzle."

"Is he so pessimistic?"

"Not a bit of it. He's merely the clerk that attends to the soda water drinks."—Baltimore American.

It is for want of application rather than means that men fail of success.—La Rochefoucauld.

Papa Is Brave.

Elschen—Mamma, is papa ever brave? Mother—He is always brave, I hope. But what makes you ask? Elschen—Because I thought if he were he wouldn't let my governess pull his ears so.—Fliegende Blatter.

Lincoln's Sarcasm.

Probably the most cutting thing Lincoln ever said was the remark he made about a very loquacious man. "This person can compress the most words into the smallest ideas of any man I ever met."

Certain Differences.

"Do they never forget their differences?"

"Why, yes, in a way. He forgets that he's a gentleman, and she forgets that she's a lady."—Puck.

He Heard of It.

Admiral Walker was a fine old sailor, and he was recognized as thorough. No personal friendship softened his manners to a delinquent. One day when he was sailing out from Hampton Roads with the international fleet that helped us to celebrate the centennial of Washington's first inauguration his orders about weighing anchor were disobeyed by his dearest friend in the service, who was in command of one of the ships, and as the old Chicago, the flagship, passed the trembling culprit the navies of the world heard "his whiskers" thundering out from the bridge objurgations and expressing wonder at his own moderation in not putting his old comrade under arrest. At another time when the white squadron was sailing out of a Mediterranean bay another old friend worked his ship so awkwardly that the admiral—then nearly a "trade dollar admiral"—suspended him by signal in the face of the whole fleet. The punished captain, coming aboard to protest against his public reprimand, puffed out indignantly, "Why, sir, I never heard of such a thing." "Well," said John, pulling at his big side whiskers, "you've heard of it now."—Harper's.

Guests Who Won't Order.

The business man returned to his office in a bad temper after the luncheon hour. "I wish people who haven't minds of their own would come to a realizing sense of the bother that they are to their friends and would develop a little initiative on their own account," he said. "Maybe it's only a mistaken idea of politeness, but anyhow it's a nuisance to be entertaining a person at the club and have him utterly without ideas as to what he wants to eat and drink. You ask him and he says he'll leave it to you, which is exactly what you don't want him to do. How can you divine his tastes, I'd like to know? What appeals to you very likely won't to him, and you know and he knows it. But your selections from the menu are always met with the comment 'That's very nice,' or 'You couldn't suit me better.' And so you go through the meal in a hit and miss fashion that certainly gets on the nerves of the host. The next time I run up against that kind of man I'm just going to sit back and let him do the entire ordering."—New York Press.

Where the Dog Is Valued.

In northern France and in Belgium especially the dog is indeed the friend of man. He is made to work. He gets little play except that small amount deemed sufficient to prevent canine dullness, yet he is so loved and so well cared for by his owner that he becomes a most important member of the family. The farmer, the tradesman, the householder, the guardsman of the frontier worships his dog—one of the first things he thinks of when founding his little home. He takes delight in rousing the dog's intelligence and loses no chance of pitting that intelligence against others. Local farmers vie with each other to improve a breed. Dog clubs take up the work, holding exhibitions in villages and towns. Cities challenge neighboring municipalities to contests on the grandest scale.—Wide World Magazine.

Wrecked by a Whale.

While cruising in the south seas the whaler Essex was furiously attacked by a cow sperm whale supposed to have been the mother of a calf which had just been harpooned. The whale had not been wounded herself, and her attack was very determined. At her first rush she passed under the Essex and carried away a great length of her false keel; then, coming to the surface a considerable distance away, she appeared to take bearings and deliberately charged the vessel again, ramming her with such violence that she stove in the bows, while the ship rolled so heavily that the captain thought she must be dismasted. The case is memorable because the crew had to abandon the vessel, and one boat was never heard of again.—Baily's Magazine.

Jingled His Wealth.

Young Scotch Precentor—Man Tammas, there's ae thing bothers me sair when I'm singin', an' I canna get ower't. I'm awfu' nervous.

Old Precentor—Aye, aye. I wis the same as you when I wis young, but I found oot a cure, an' I've aye kept tae't. I jist pit seeven or acht coopers in my pouch, an' when I feel the nervousness beginnin' I give them a bit rattle. It mak's me feel kin' o' wantt I may ca' independent like. Try't, mon, try't.—Dundee Advertiser.

High Living.

An eminent man who is a strict abstainer from both wine and animal food is obliged in consequence of this peculiarity to refrain from dining out. He entertains, however, an occasional kindred spirit. One such was recently at his table.

"You ought to have seen them," said the eminent man's son, "rioting over boiled carrots!"

In Wooden Shoe Land.

Patience—Did you have any shoes made in Holland? Patrice—Well, I tried to have a pair made, but when I went to get them they told me they hadn't cut the tree down yet.—Yonkers Statesman.

When Pride Is Humbled.

"How can I ever hope to win such a proud beauty?"

"Drop around when men are scarce. She ain't nearly so proud then."—Washington Herald.
